PLACEMENT FACILITATION POLICY

ALLIANCE SCHOOL OF ADVANCED COMPUTING and ALLIANCE SCHOOL OF APPLIED ENGINEERING

TARGET PARTICIPANTS: B.TECH / M.TECH / MSC / BCA / MCA

POLICY DOCUMENT NO: AU/CAN/PFP/ASAC-ASAE/2025/001

1. What is the role of the Career Advancement and Networking (CAN) Team?

Answer: CAN plays the role of a facilitator that aids future recruitments for students either by bringing in recruiters to the campus or assisting them to go through the recruitment process at select organizations.

2. Do you (student) require the assistance of CAN?

Answer: If yes, please register and fill in your details on the CAN portal.

3. Who is eligible for CAN assistance?

Answer:

A. Students who have secured a score of 60% or more with a maximum of two active backlogs at the time of registration. It is mandatory for a student to meet these requirements to be eligible during the placement cycle.

B. Should have attended all the employability training sessions.

b1. Minimum 90% attendance in all training activities organized by the CDP department.

b2. Attendance in all 6 sessions is compulsory for those students enrolled in the Corporate Mentorship Program.

b3. A minimum comprehensive score of 60 % in competency assessment by AMCAT.

C. A student should not be under any disciplinary action at the time of registration and the entire placement cycle in the university, or he will be blocked from the placement assistance for the cycle. Please refer to point 11 for detailed code of conduct.

D. It is expected that every student reads the profile thoroughly and only applies with his/her good judgement. Once the student applies, the student must ensure his/her presence for the entire process and take it very seriously. If a student applies to an organization, and is absent during the process, he/she will be issued a warning. A further absence from a scheduled company recruitment process will lead to an automatic exclusion from the ongoing placement cycle.

4. How does the CAN facilitation process work?

Placement facilitation

The offers are categorized into three categories, namely Regular, Dream and Super Dream Offers based on compensation.

4a. Regular Offer (INR 4-5 LPA)

- i. Students placed in a Regular offer cannot apply for other Regular companies.
- ii. They are only eligible to apply for Dream (INR 5-10 LPA) and Super Dream (INR 10 LPA & above) companies.

4b. Dream Offer (INR 5-10 LPA)

- i. Students placed in a Dream offer cannot apply for other Regular or Dream companies.
- ii. They are only eligible to apply for Super Dream (INR 10 LPA & above) companies.

4c. Super Dream Offer (INR 10 LPA & above)

- i. Students placed in a Super Dream offer are not eligible for any further placement opportunities.
- ii. It ensures equal opportunity and maintains fairness for all students by enabling them to strive for better offers without holding on to several similar offers.

5. Important Note

- Students should have a minimum score of 60% and above in the competency assessment (refer point 3.B.b3) to be eligible for Dream opportunity.
- Students should have a minimum score of 70% and above in the competency assessment (refer point 3.B.b3) to be eligible for Super Dream opportunity.

- The Dream & Super Dream opportunities are valid only if the joining date falls after 31st December 2025. Any instance of early joining will obligate the student to accept the offer, irrespective of its category.

6. What is the student required to do?

6a. Getting a job offer is the sole responsibility of the student. It is to be borne in mind that CAN is only a facilitator.

6b. It is compulsory to attend all training sessions, both academic and corporate.

6c. It is imperative to prepare well for the aptitude and coding tests that most companies conduct as a first filter.

6d. It is equally important to prepare well for the Technical/HR interview rounds.

7. What happens on receipt of an offer?

Answer: Acceptance of the offer is mandatory. No exceptions will be made. Therefore, it is obligatory for a student to thoroughly comprehend the company's terms and conditions before opting to participate in the selection process. On selection, the offer will be intimated to the student directly either via an email from the Office of CAN, or announcement of results in the placement portal or a letter from the company directly.

7a.) A student must submit a testimony in writing and if required, by video to the CAN team. By participating in the placement assistance, the student automatically agrees to provide a written or video testimonial as mandated by the office of the CAN).

7b.) The student must ensure to coordinate with the CAN office regarding the joining date.

8. What should a student do if the company requests an early joining either as an intern, trainee, or full-time employee?

Answer: The student may be allowed to join early as per the requirements of the company, and a separate intimation would be provided for this. As soon as a student joins the organization, he/she is accountable for his/her performance which is likely to directly impact the potential for full-time conversion. Additional details can be found in the annexure.

Early joining policy

- a. Students receiving an offer / or joining date after completing 70% of days from the start of semester must follow the standard academic process, including DSA evaluation.
- b. Students receiving an offer / joining date before completing 70% of days from the start of semester are exempt from writing the DSA evaluation and will write the semester end exams for 100 marks.
- c. Students will ensure to inform and stay connected with all faculty members who would be teaching the student in the respective semester(s).

9. What if a student gets an opportunity without the support of the Office of CAN?

Answer: It is advisable to consider the companies announced by the CAN office as they will bring varied opportunities with varying compensation. In the case of a self-offer, students are required to initiate the review and verification process, after which approval from the relevant school head must be obtained.

10. What is to be done if a student has a grievance?

Answer: A student can approach the Director - CAN for grievance redressal. In case of further redressal, the student has the liberty of appealing to the Appellate Committee of the University.

11. Code of Conduct during recruitment drive activities.

- a. It shall be imperative for students to display exemplary conduct. This includes but is not limited to, being punctual, being patient while waiting for their turn, adopting only fair practices, presenting their best, accepting the outcome with grace, and very importantly, refraining from making any comments, suggestions, observations, or criticisms about the institution, faculty, staff, fellow students, or recruiters.
- b. Any act that violates the above would be construed as misconduct and such a student, after due process, would be out of placement facilitation and refrained from appearing for any further process.
- c. Any aspect of the process not specifically outlined in this policy, and that which requires interpretation or judgment shall be dealt with by the Placement Committee.

12. What should be done in order to receive a great job offer?

Answer: Research the industry or sector and organization.

A. Preparation must begin early.

B. Domain expertise, cognitive skill enhancement, leadership development, and an awareness of how personal values align with the organizational values and culture are decisive factors in determining success.

C. It is fruitful to make full use of academic and other training activities.

D. Accumulate practical Knowledge by actively engaging in the live challenges that are periodically shared by the CAN office during the different phases of the program.

E. Attend all preparatory processes organized by the CAN office and the CDP of respective School.

F. It is necessary to be ready with copies of an updated resume, academic credentials, photographs, certificates, and testimonials in both the physical and digital formats. It is equally important to have a full-fledged GitHub repository and upgraded LinkedIn profile.

G. It is important to maintain dress etiquette and adhere to the recommended dress code, as most organizations expect a proper dress code. Business formal attire being the standard requirement by hiring organizations during the recruitment process.
